

NOAA Private Remote Sensing License

Annual Certification

Pursuant to 15 CFR § 960.14 and Part B of your National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration (NOAA) remote-sensing license, your annual certification is due annually by October 15th. This annual certification requires you to certify on this form that each material fact in your license remains accurate. A "material fact" is as any fact in Parts C or D of your license. 15 CFR § 960.4. Please carefully review all material facts in your license to ensure that each fact is still accurate.

If any material fact in the license is no longer accurate at the time the certification is due, you must provide all accurate material facts; explain the reason for any discrepancies between the terms in your license and the accurate material fact; and seek guidance from CRSRA on how to correct any errors, which may include requesting a license modification. 15 CFR § 960.14. Failing to comply with this license condition may result in enforcement actions. 15 CFR § 960.16.

Please refer any questions to CRSRA at 301-427-2560 or by email at CRSRA@noaa.gov.
